

Sulgrave Manor Beyond the Tour

a chance to find out more about the Manor, its history and its contents with a different subject each month and a lovely light meal to boot!

July 2nd at 6.30

To America and Back Wendy Barnes, the Director, talks about the evidence of “the special connection” in the month of American Independence

August 6th at 6.30

The Tudor Housewife Linda Williams looks at the lives of the women who fed, clothed and cared for their families in a very different world.

September 3rd at 6.30

Clean at all costs Rosemary Verner and Aileen Buzzoni show how the Tudors kept themselves and their belongings cleaner than we think.

October 1st at 6.30

Shoes, Samplers and Settees

The Manor's wonderful collection of textiles are shown and discussed

November 5th at 12.30

Lost to History ? The life and times of the step-grandson of Lawrence Washington, Samuel Argall, who, amongst other things, kidnapped Pocahontas

December 3rd at 12.30

Have you one of these at home? A look at some of the less familiar pieces in the house with Jenny Overson.

Held on the first Wednesday of each month (12.30 Nov–March, 6.30 Apr–Oct) Booking, by phone or email essential : £15 per person. Price includes lunch or supper and coffee.